Governance and human rights

We are committed to striving for the highest standards of corporate governance and ethical business conduct. This commitment is instilled across our business, from the boardroom to the factory floor, and throughout our operations and supply chain.

We believe that ethical business conduct must be the responsibility of senior levels of the business, and fostered through the whole organisation. This section outlines Smurfit Kappa’s approach to governance in terms of sustainable conduct. We expect the same standards of conduct from our suppliers, and this section also summarises our approach to supplier compliance. For further information on corporate governance, see pages 67–69 of the 2019 Smurfit Kappa Group Annual Report.

Lead from the Top

The overall responsibility for ensuring the Group demonstrates leadership within the paper-based packaging sector, promoting an actionable sustainable development agenda lies with the Board.

During the year, we formed a Sustainability Committee of the Board, which has the responsibility to drive and provide overall strategic guidance of sustainability initiatives to the benefit of all our stakeholders. The sustainability strategy will focus on the three key pillars: People; Planet; and Business. In addition, the development and implementation of the Group’s sustainability strategy, objectives and policies are managed by the Executive Committee led by the Group CEO.

The Executive Committee is supported in this work by a Sustainability Management team, led by our Group Vice President Development, and includes key representatives from operations in Europe and the Americas. The Working Group primarily monitors the implementation of the Group’s sustainability strategy and ensures that targets are met at all material areas. It also promotes sustainability targets among our customers, suppliers and corporate peers.

Complying with Regulations and Guidelines

It’s Group policy to comply, at a minimum, with the relevant laws and regulations in the countries we operate. We ensure that our employees are aware of relevant guidelines and conduct themselves accordingly.

During 2019, one of the Group’s subsidiaries, Smurfit Kappa Italia Sp.A. (SKI) was found to have engaged in anti-competitive practices in Italy, and was levied a fine of €121 million by the Italian Competition Authority (CAI). We are very disappointed with the decision of the CAI on many levels and are vigorously appealing this decision on both administrative and substantive grounds. This process may take a number of years. Smurfit Kappa is committed to the highest standards of conduct in its business and does not tolerate any actions that are inconsistent with its values.

During 2019, no other material fines were imposed on the Group for any breaches of such laws and regulations. To demonstrate our commitment, wherever possible we go beyond minimum compliance with regulations and maintain the highest reporting standards. Information about our voluntary actions in integral and regulatory matters can be found in sections Planet, People and Business on pages 20–69. Our entire Sustainable Development Report is assured by KPMG, in accordance with the “Comprehensive level of International Standards for Sustainability Reporting” (GRI). In addition, each significant business unit is subject to an annual external and independent financial audit conducted by the Group’s external Auditor. Most of our local units are subject to local statutory financial audits. The Group also has an internal Audit function which, during 2019, performed 72 internal financial audits.

Code of Business Conduct and Corporate Policies

Smurfit Kappa’s Code of Business Conduct (the Code) applies to the Board of Directors, officers and employees, as well as all individuals, agents or anyone acting on the Group’s behalf. The Code, which was updated in 2019, is available in 17 languages to ensure accessibility and worldwide compliance.

The Code takes account of the following international conventions and codes:

- International Labour Organization (ILO) Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work (core conventions)
- ILO Declaration on Fundamental Human Rights
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises
- UN Global Compact

The Code provides accessible and understandable information on employment law and practices in each jurisdiction. Each Smurfit Kappa Company and its employees are required to apply the Code, as well as abiding by the laws and practices of their industry and the jurisdiction in which they operate. It makes clear that personal and professional integrity is essential to conducting business in an ethical manner. The Code also expects adherence to ethical standards, and commitment to equality and diversity.

During 2019, there were no material incidents reported, which the Group considered to be non-compliant with the Code of Business Conduct.

The Code is supplemented by policies relating to our operational and managerial practices. These policies cover Environment, Sustainability, Forestry Sourcing, Sustainable Sourcing, Social Citizenship, and Health and Safety. All our codes and policies are available on our website: www.smurfitkappa.com.

Respecting Human Rights

As a sustainable business, we support global human rights and labour standards, and check that our suppliers do too. We are committed to the principles of respect, diversity, working fair for pay, compensation and benefits, and our acquisition practices are in line with these principles as well. They are maintained in every country in which they have a presence and our principles and policies with respect to our employees and suppliers are updated to ensure compliance.

Our goals to be the most sustainable paper-based packaging company globally. To achieve this, it is important for us to share our sustainability experience with our customers, suppliers and the wider industry.

Safe Products and Satisfied Customers

These include OECD guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and providing statements on food safety and REACH to our customers. These are available on request through our website. As a highly customer-centric organisation, we put customer experience at the heart of our operating model. We strive to differentiate ourselves with an enhanced buying experience, and to create measurable value for our customers and key stakeholders.

Delivering a great customer experience calls for disciplined execution and consistent service delivery. We use data-driven and analytics-based insights to review customer journeys and pinpoint the operational improvements that can have the biggest effect. We also use tangible methods and tools to measure customer satisfaction and understand what matters to our customers and how we can deliver it. Our Customer Relationship Management (CRM) tool enables us to follow up on customer feedbacks and capture insights that can maximise customer satisfaction. This drives customer value and loyalty.

Copame – Giving Children a Better Life // Brazil

“...with the help of your children. Grow and find permanent homes,” says Derk Lambers, Copame - Giving Children a Better Life

...with the help of your children. Grow and find permanent homes,” says Derk Lambers, Copame - Giving Children a Better Life

“Our 26 permanent and 38 on-call volunteers are indispensable in supporting these young people,” says Derk Lambers. “They help our children get a better start in their lives.”

Copame’s facility can host 45 orphaned, abandoned or maltreated children, from newborn to age 18. The project is more than just a facility, however. Early in this foundation in 1984, the charity has found places for every child in Brazil. It works closely with the philanthropists who walk with us. All others, 1,102 of them, were returned to parents, grandparents or family in the Latin American country’s Social Citizenship programme, and volunteer-drivers also commute between Brazil and the US.

The site includes residential and play facilities as well as an on-site bakery which supplies bread to the area and is an important source of income. Other financial support comes from individual donations, corporations, members of the community and organisations.

The facility also provides for the children’s future well-being by partnering with local universities. Teachers and students offer expertise with medicine, dentistry, psychology and nutrition. The site is self-sufficient, with 45 children living on the property and providing the bulk of the food. To maximise efficiency and return value to the Group, we work with suppliers to ensure that all raw materials and packaging are delivered on-time, and that the facility is able to produce the best quality accommodation possible.
